

Miss Edith ~~W. H. Fisher~~

~~808 L. Lane St.~~

Brownsville ~~Pittsburgh~~
% W. H. Fisher
Pa.

Saturday morning Father arrived Saturday night, they were not in the least alarmed but Father wanted to be with her and Mrs L. thought it would be better to have some woman
belonging to her there. al. though she had a good
nurse.

Monday there seemed to be quite a change they had a consultation and the Drs. said they did not like the action of her heart. she died Tuesday

My Dear Miss Hartwell;

This will be simply a few lines to thank you for your lovely letter to me from Brown ville.

You ask for some of the particulars of my dear mother's death. and I shall try to give them though I know you will excuse me if it is somewhat lame.

at 11 of heart failure.
I did not know she was ill until Tuesday at 8 o'clock. James had been sick and I had been up all night with him. He was better that day. so I left that evening.
Mother knew she was to die and left messages for all of us. But I will write more. some day I hope I shall be able to talk to
you. how I wish you

Ledlie, my oldest brother her temperature never but was having so much once ran up as high as 104 trouble with his throat and almost immediately Dr. Blair said he was dropped. was also her room out and must go out most of the time, only away for a rest. so he reached 101 at the highest persuaded brother to go she suffered as prior. on with him. she had been the fifth day. Mrs. Laughlin at Old Point but two telephoned Ledlie and days. when she was taken learned brother was ill, ill. it proved to be typhoid she was in New York and the Dr. said a very light immediately telephoned attack and likely to be home and then went to a long low run of fever Old Point arriving could make us a visit.

can't you?

To tender my most hearth felt and deepest sympathy to your cousin in her affliction. tell her our thought which has been a comfort to me has been "God never does nor suffers to be entirely -
done, that which is ~~wrong~~ right when you can

Love as ever

Jessie A. J. Clements and see us.

July 1st 1899.

Yes. I received your lovely Florida letter.

Dr. Blair told me he was negotiating with you to get you to do his office work. did you not fancy it?

I do hope your cousin's second child recovered

and if you can come